Dear Miss Parlow:

It was grand last night!
Especially the Tchaikowsky!!
For yourself and your colleagues, my wife and I send our heartiest congratulations on your superlative performance, and with every good wish for further success, I am with kindest regards,

Most sincerely yours,
Milton Blackstone.

P.S. - Because of the lateness of the hour (for me) we did not stay for the party, but some friends who were there told me what a grand affair it was.
